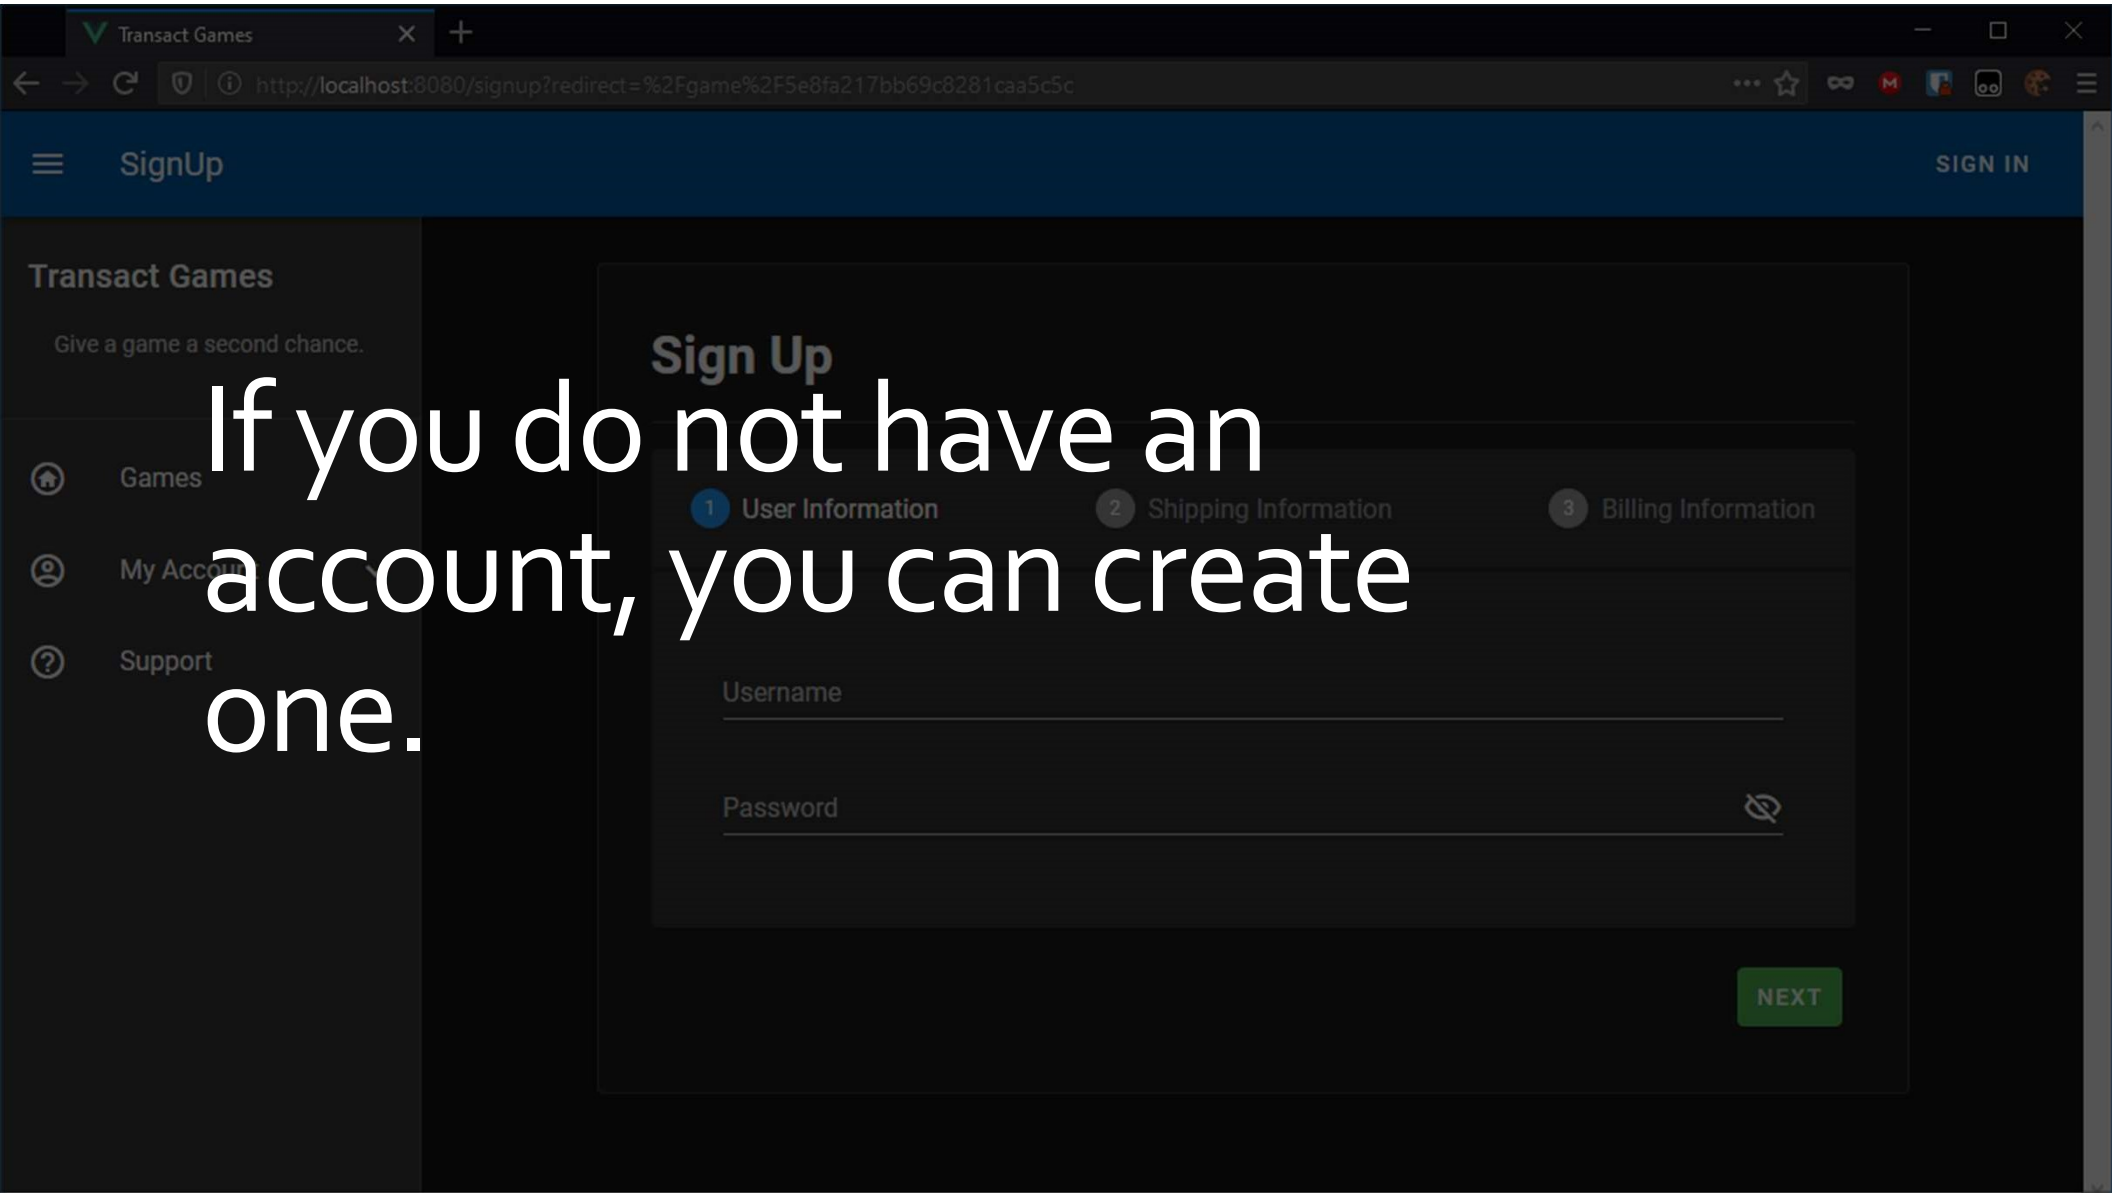
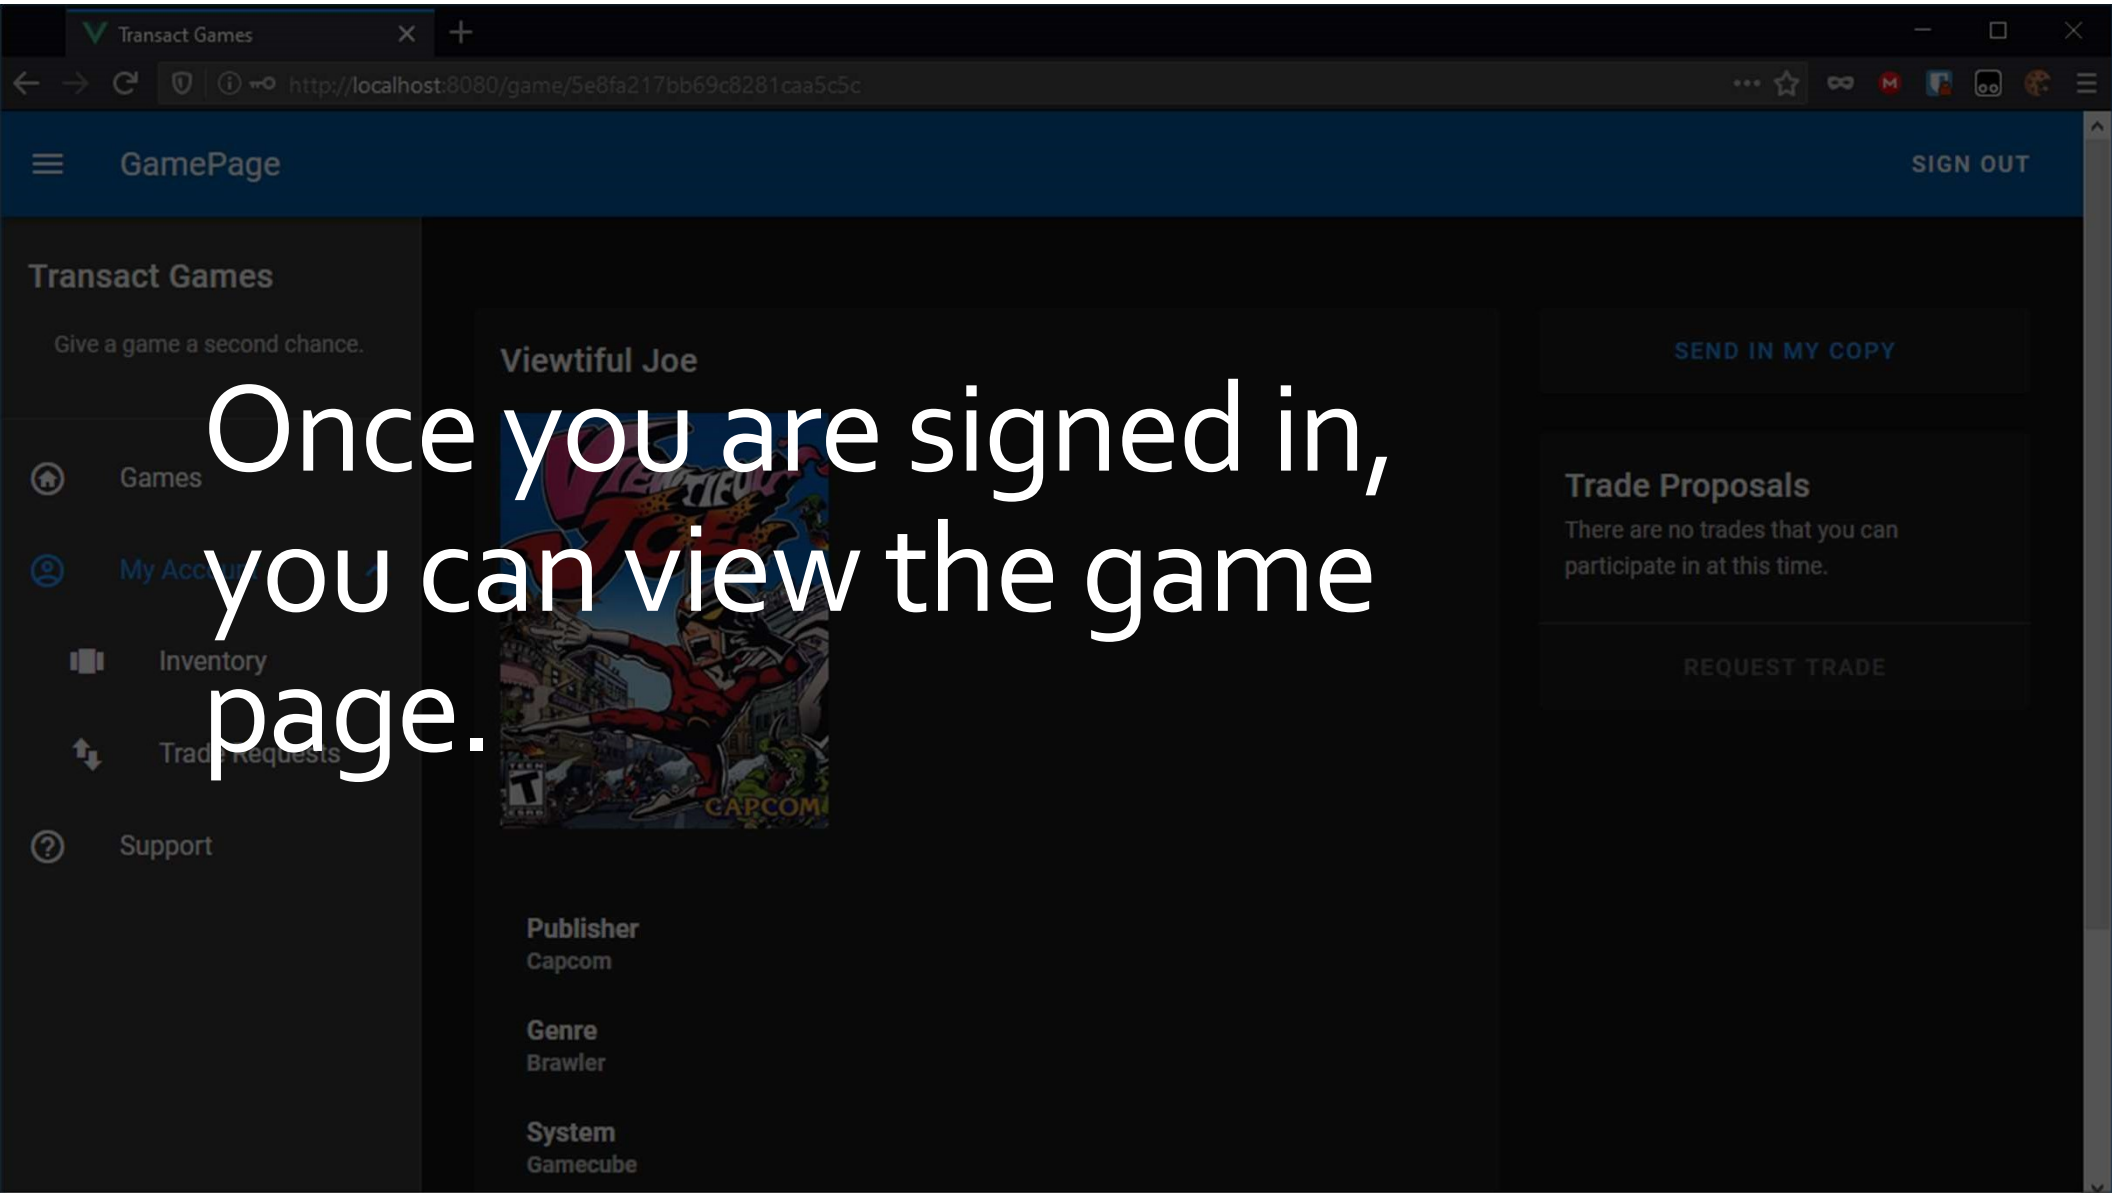
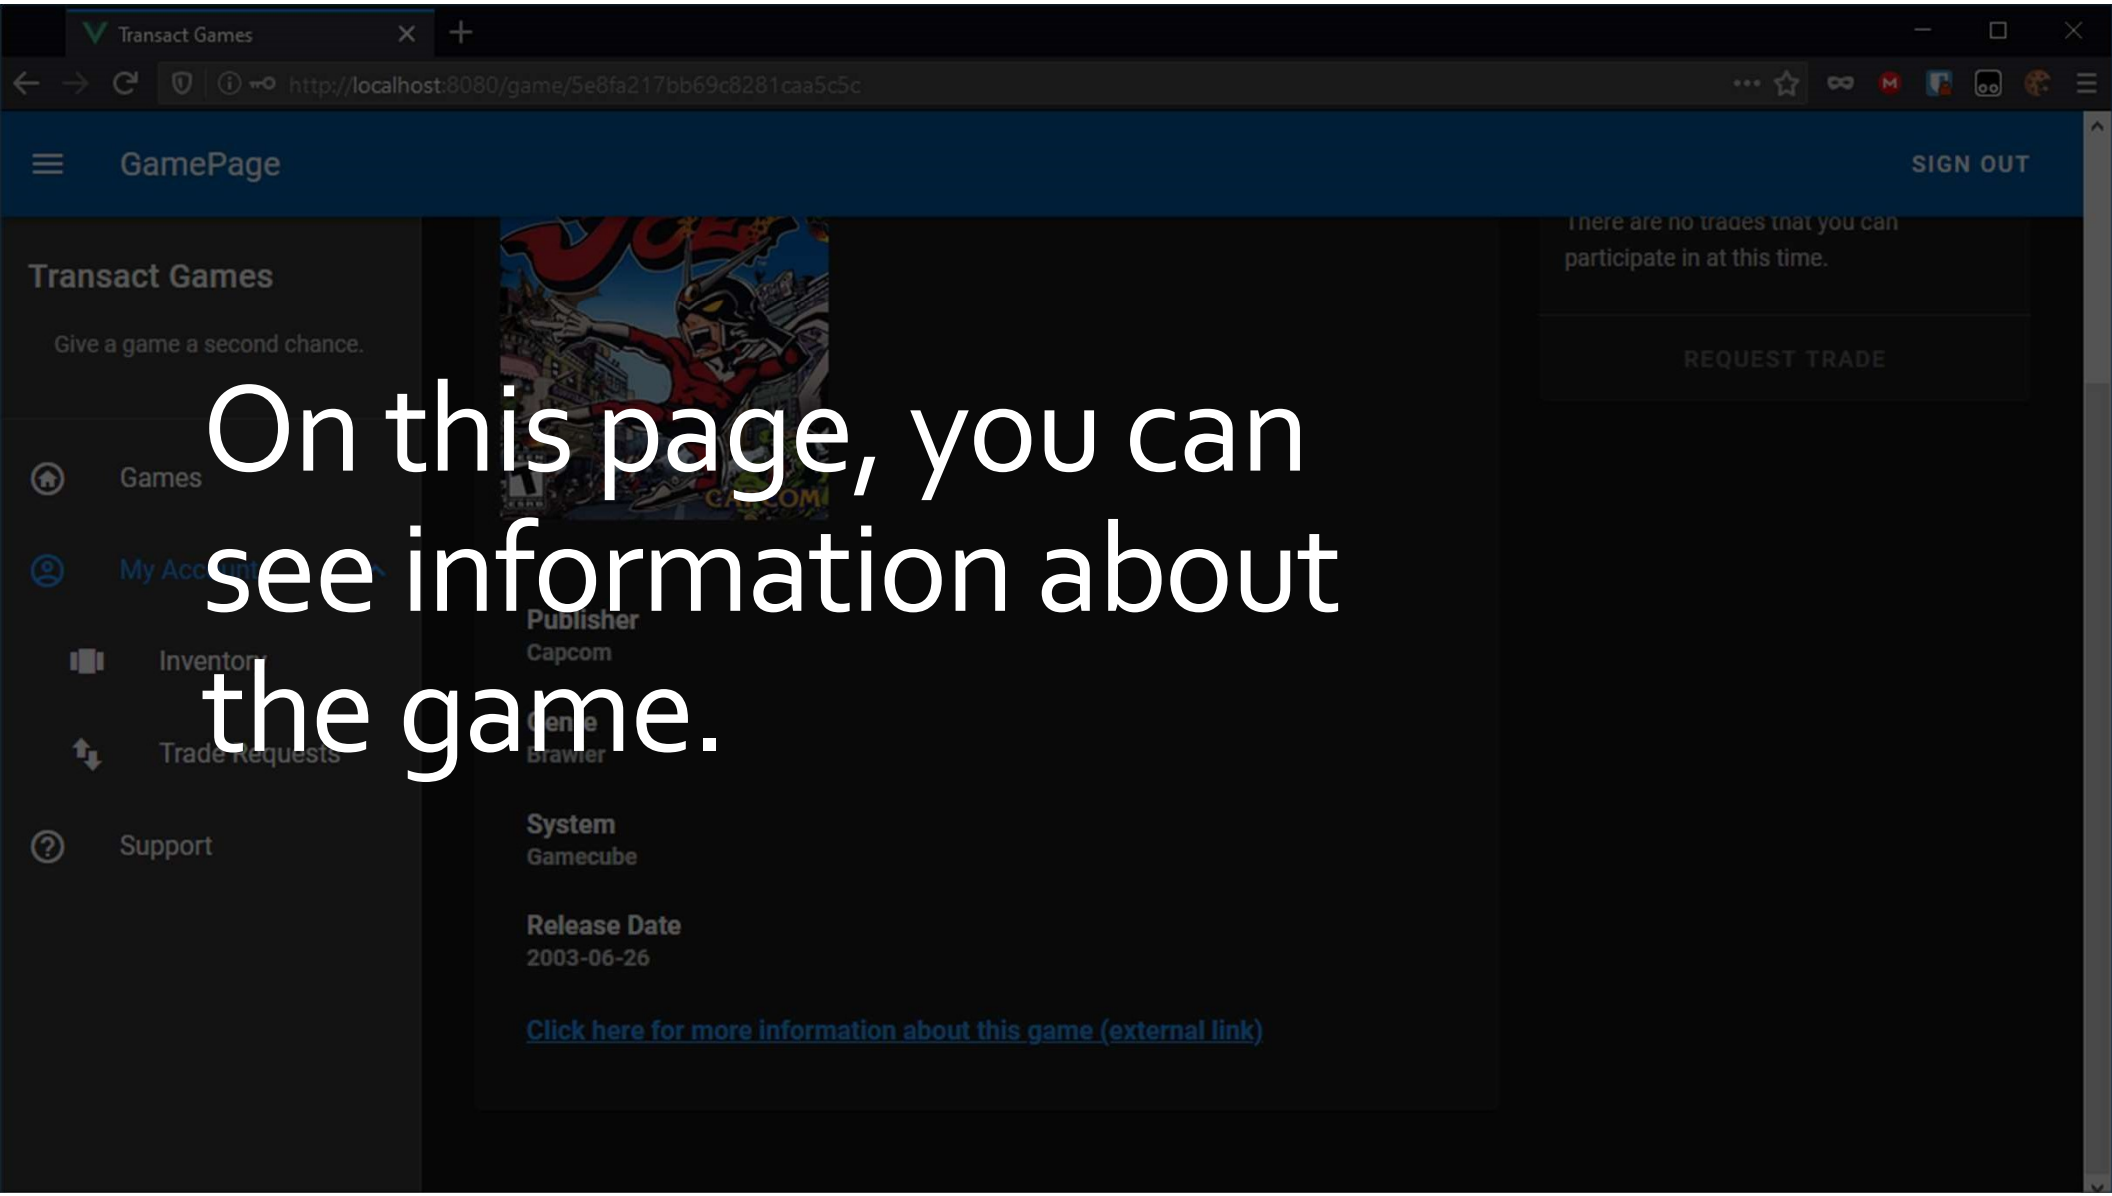
To interact with a game, you must be signed in.



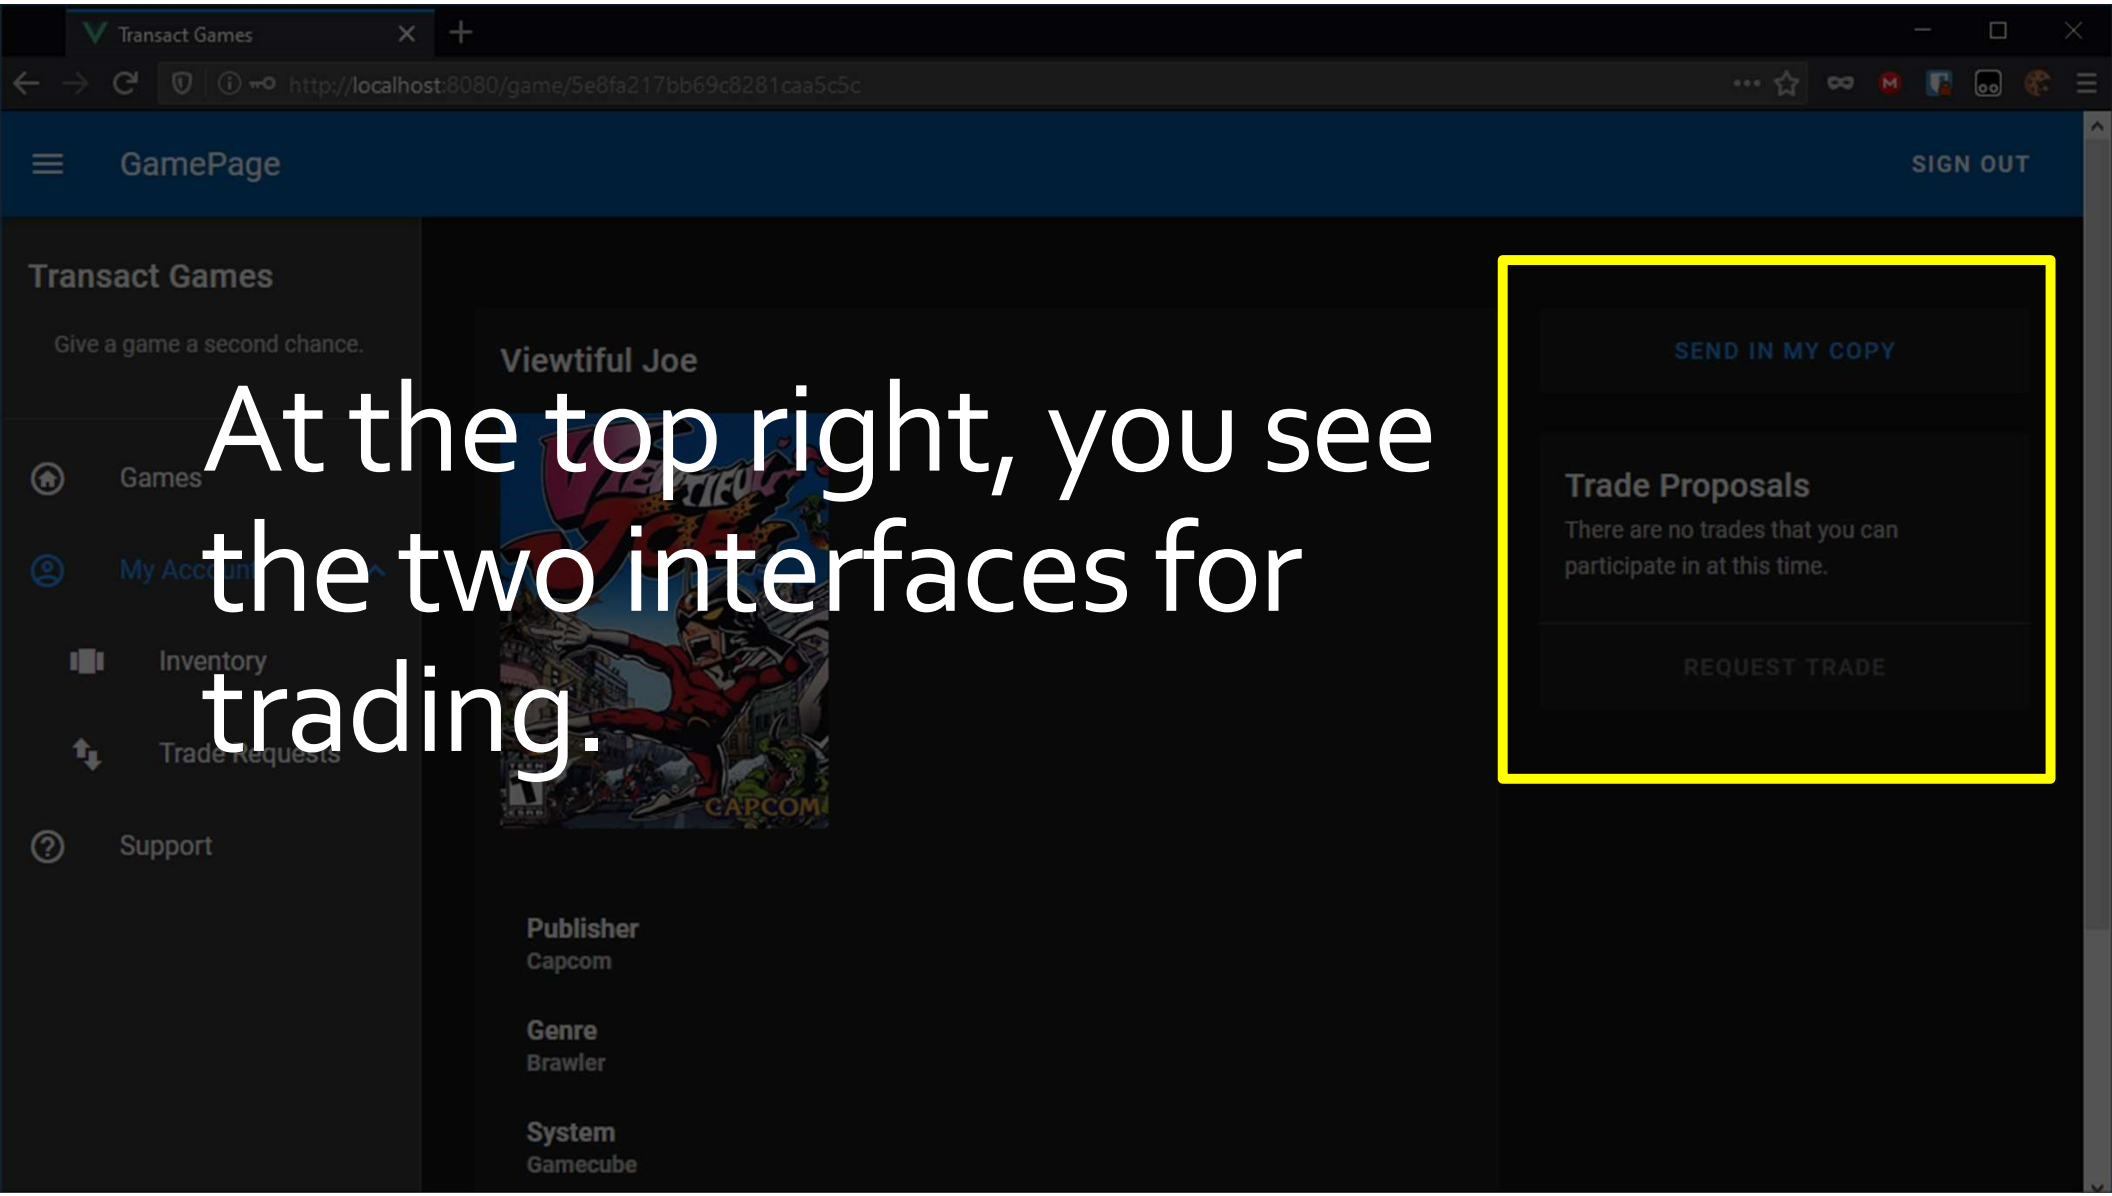
If you do not have an account, you can create one.



Once you are signed in, you can view the game page.



On this page, you can see information about the game.



At the top right, you see the two interfaces for trading.

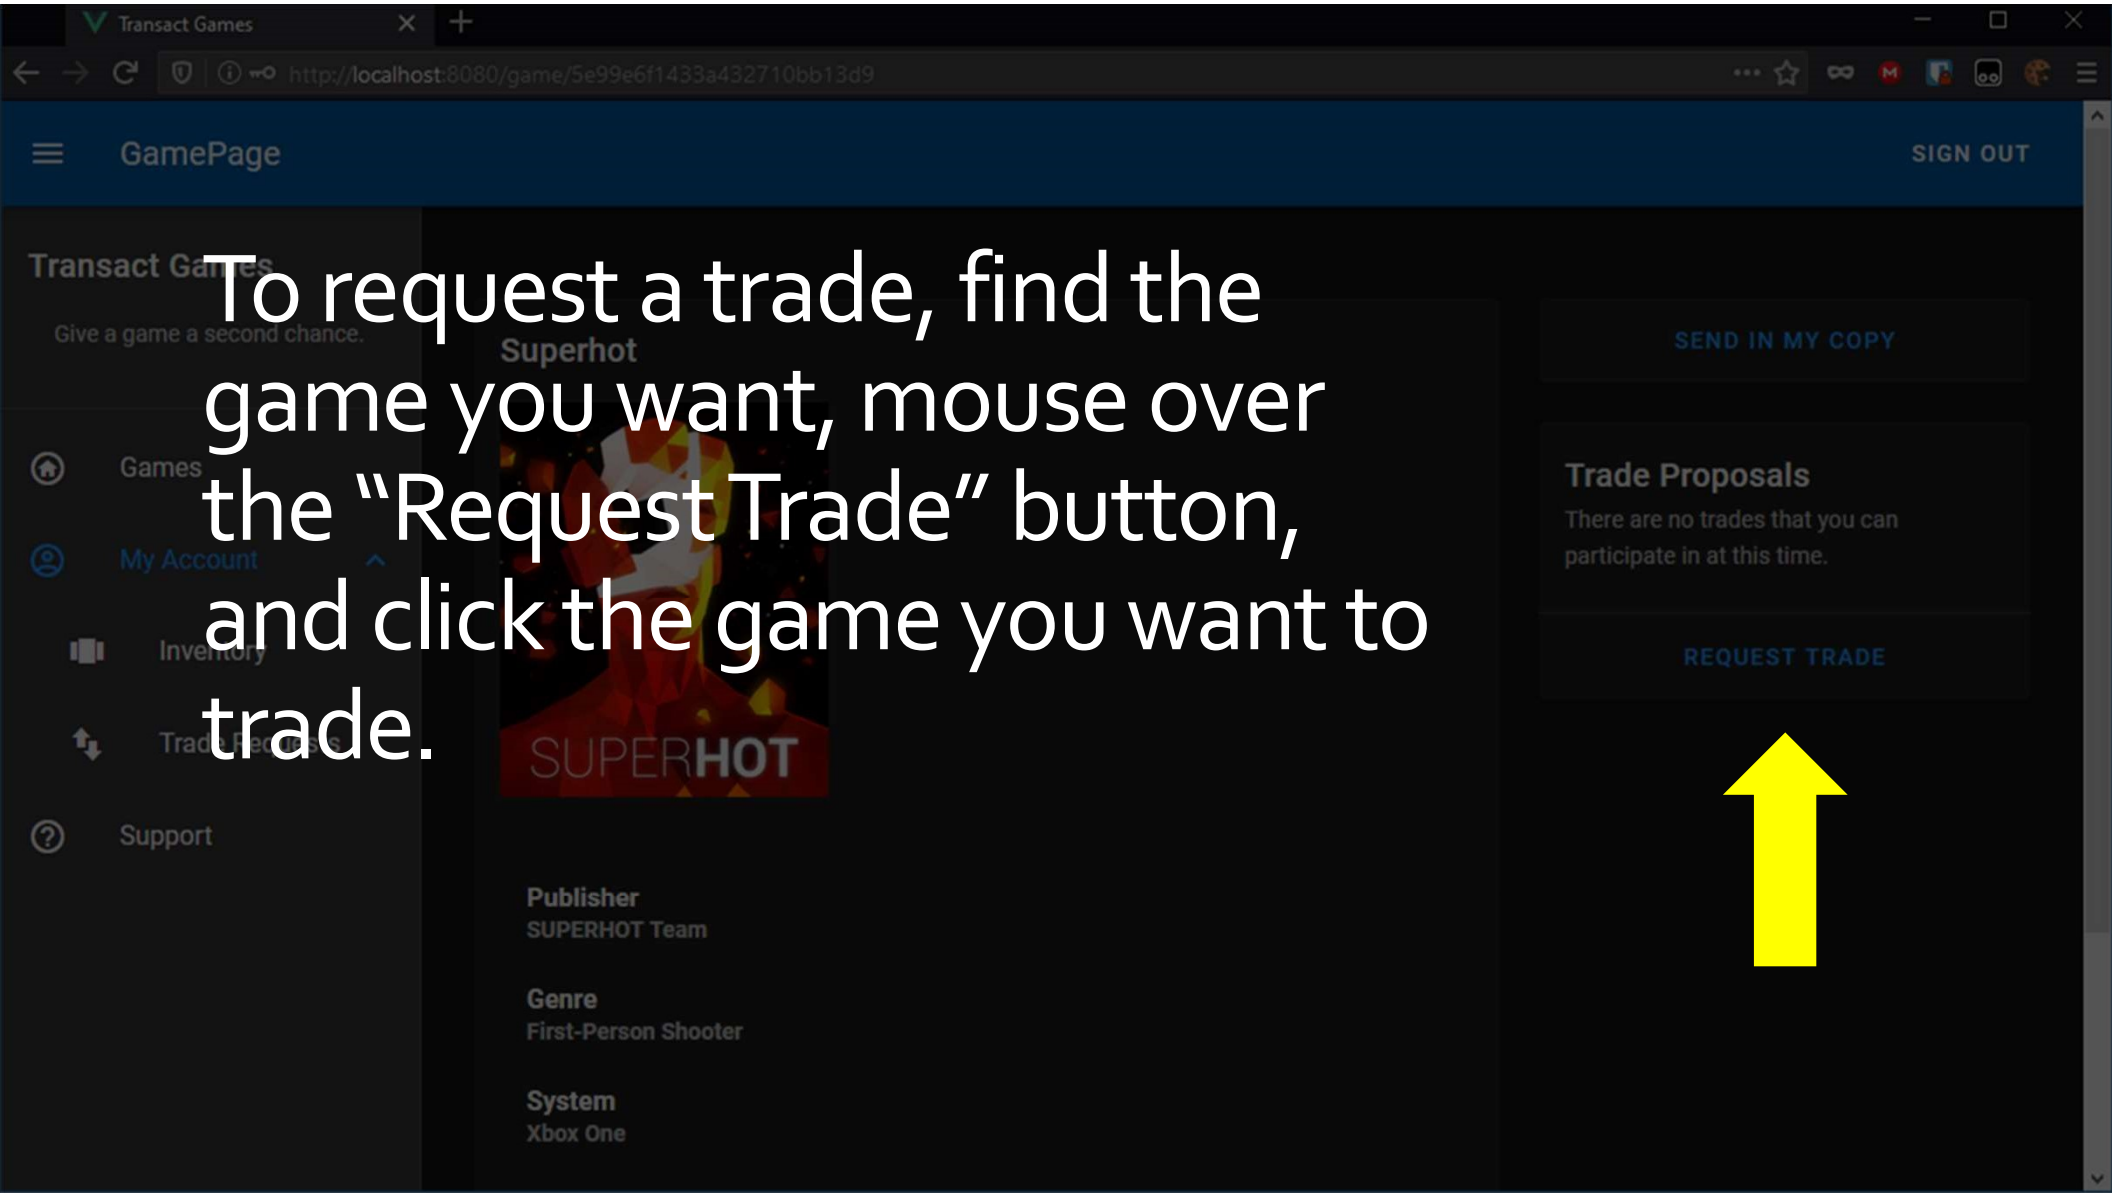
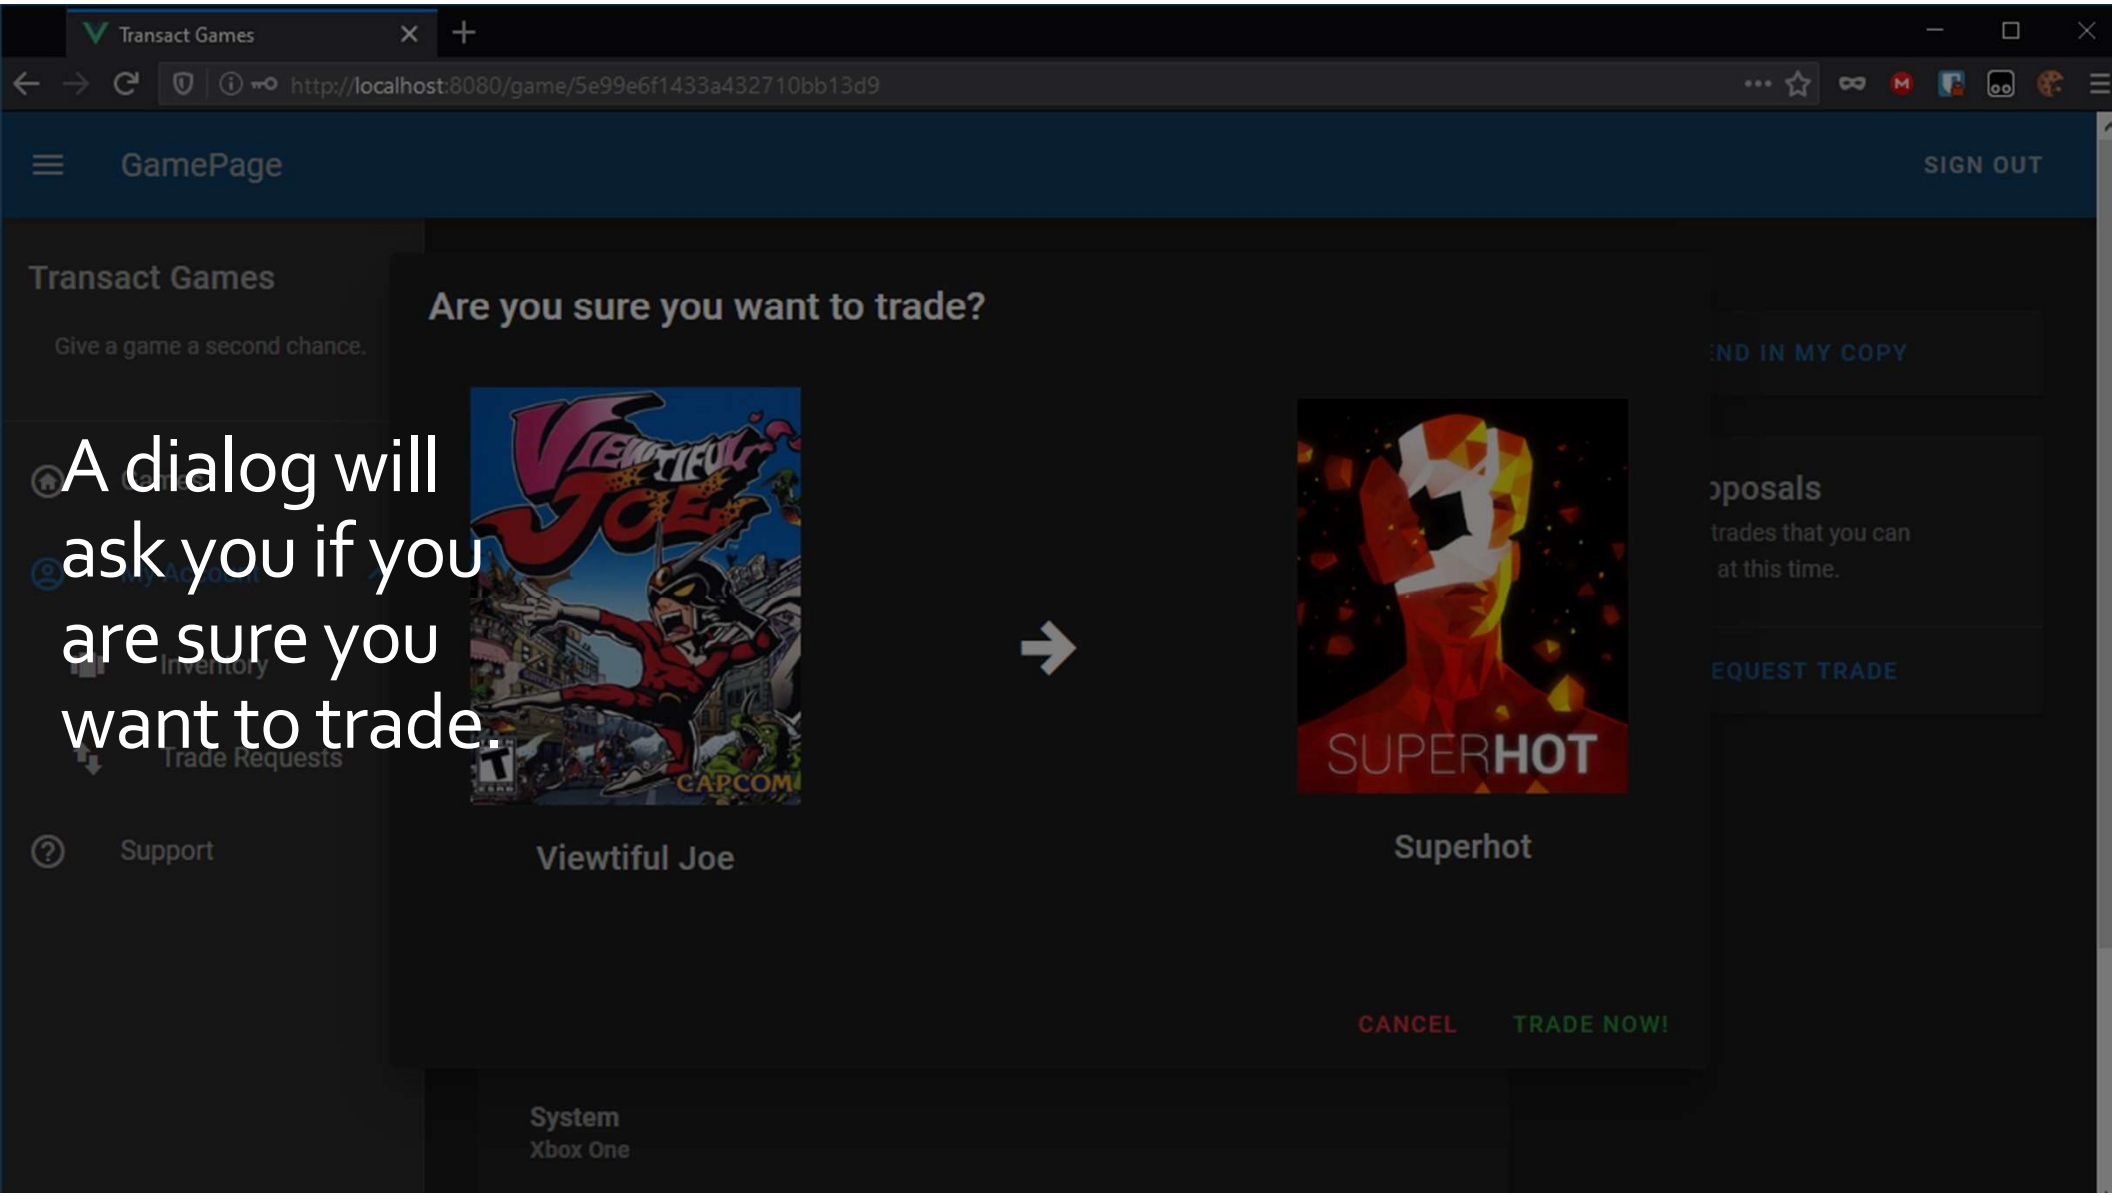
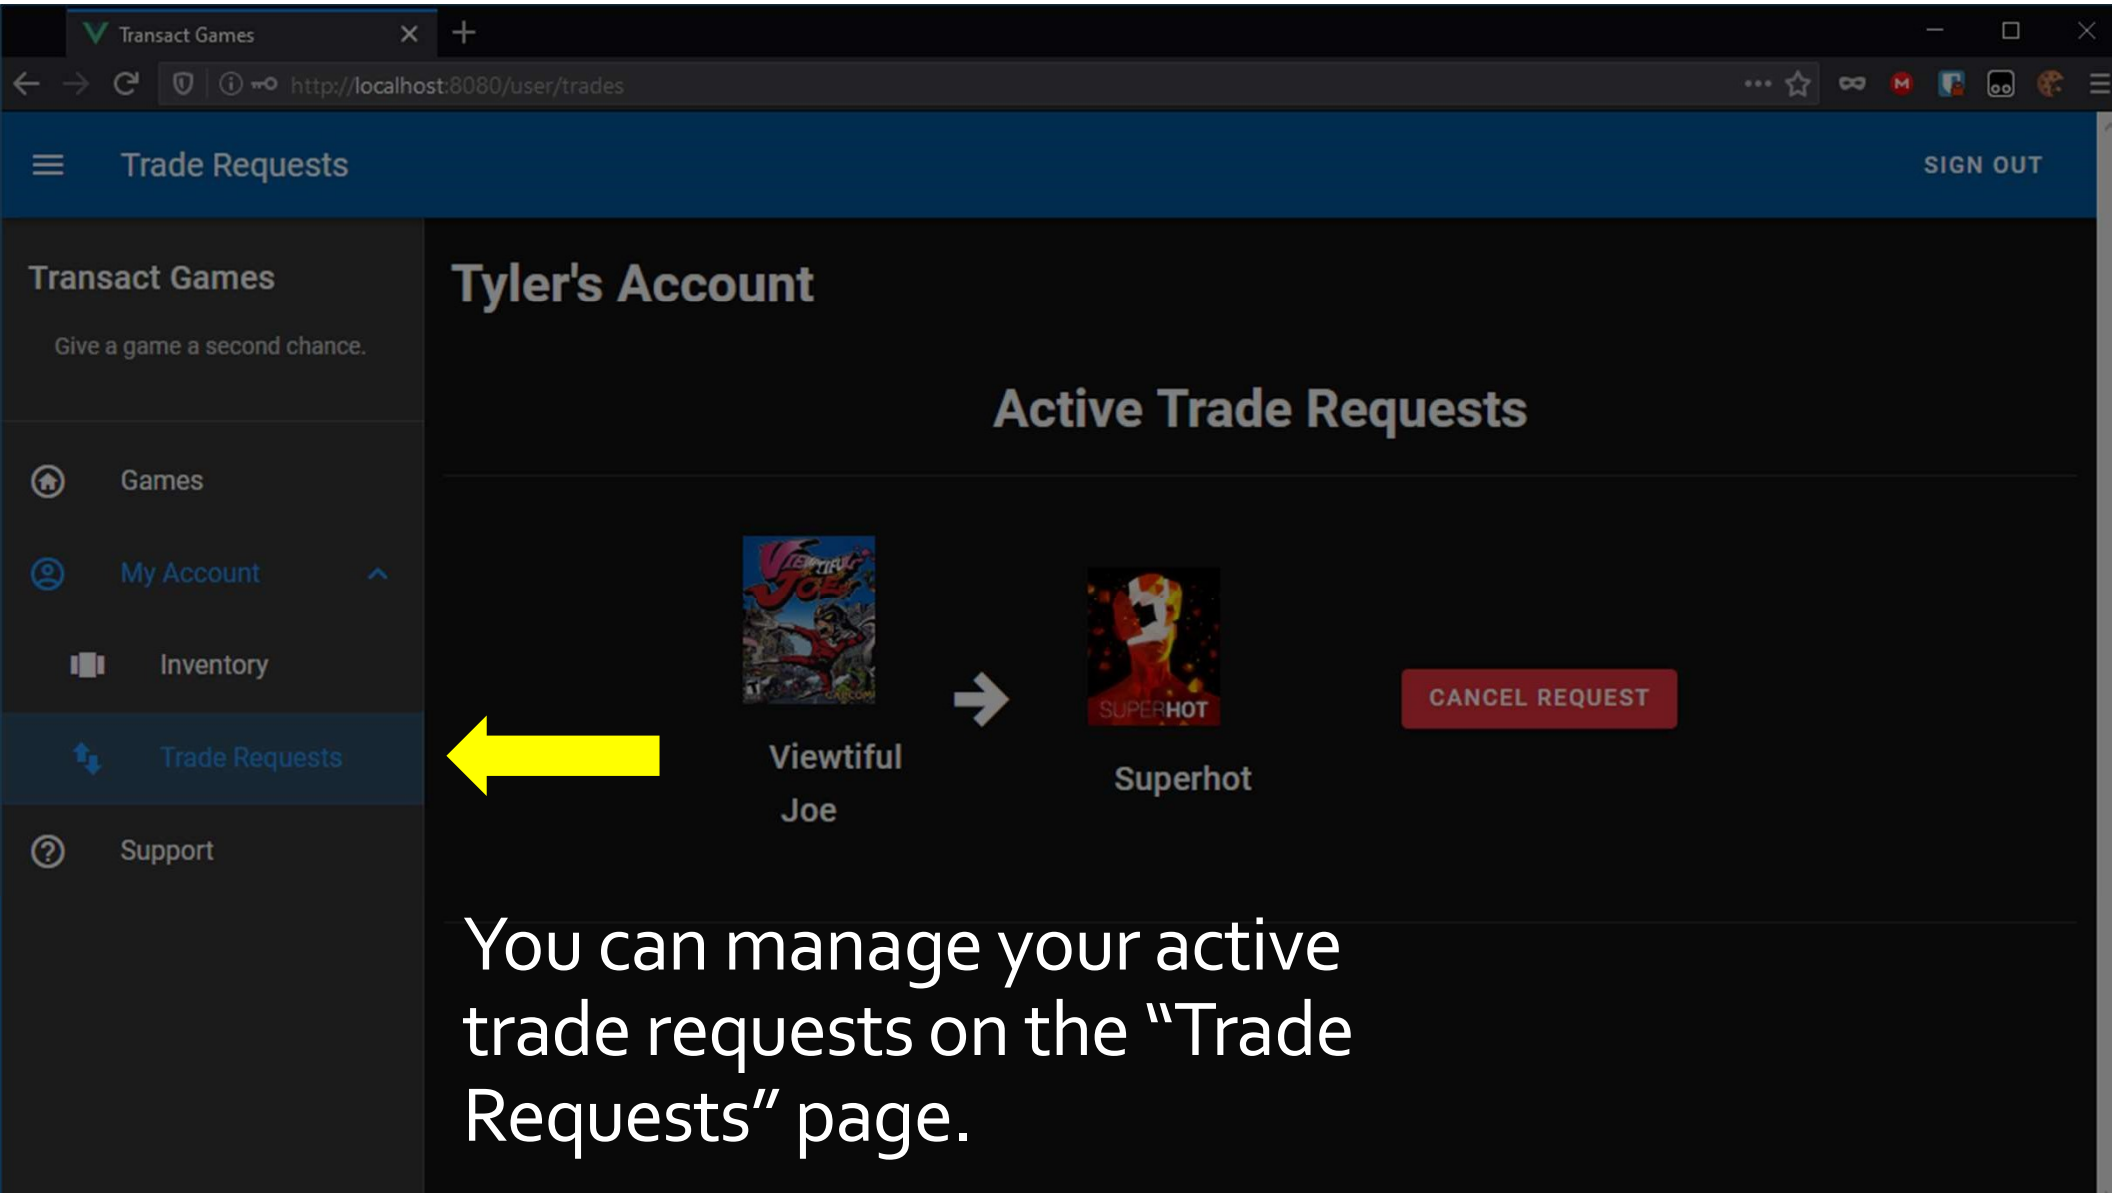
Once you have sent your game in, it will appear in your inventory.



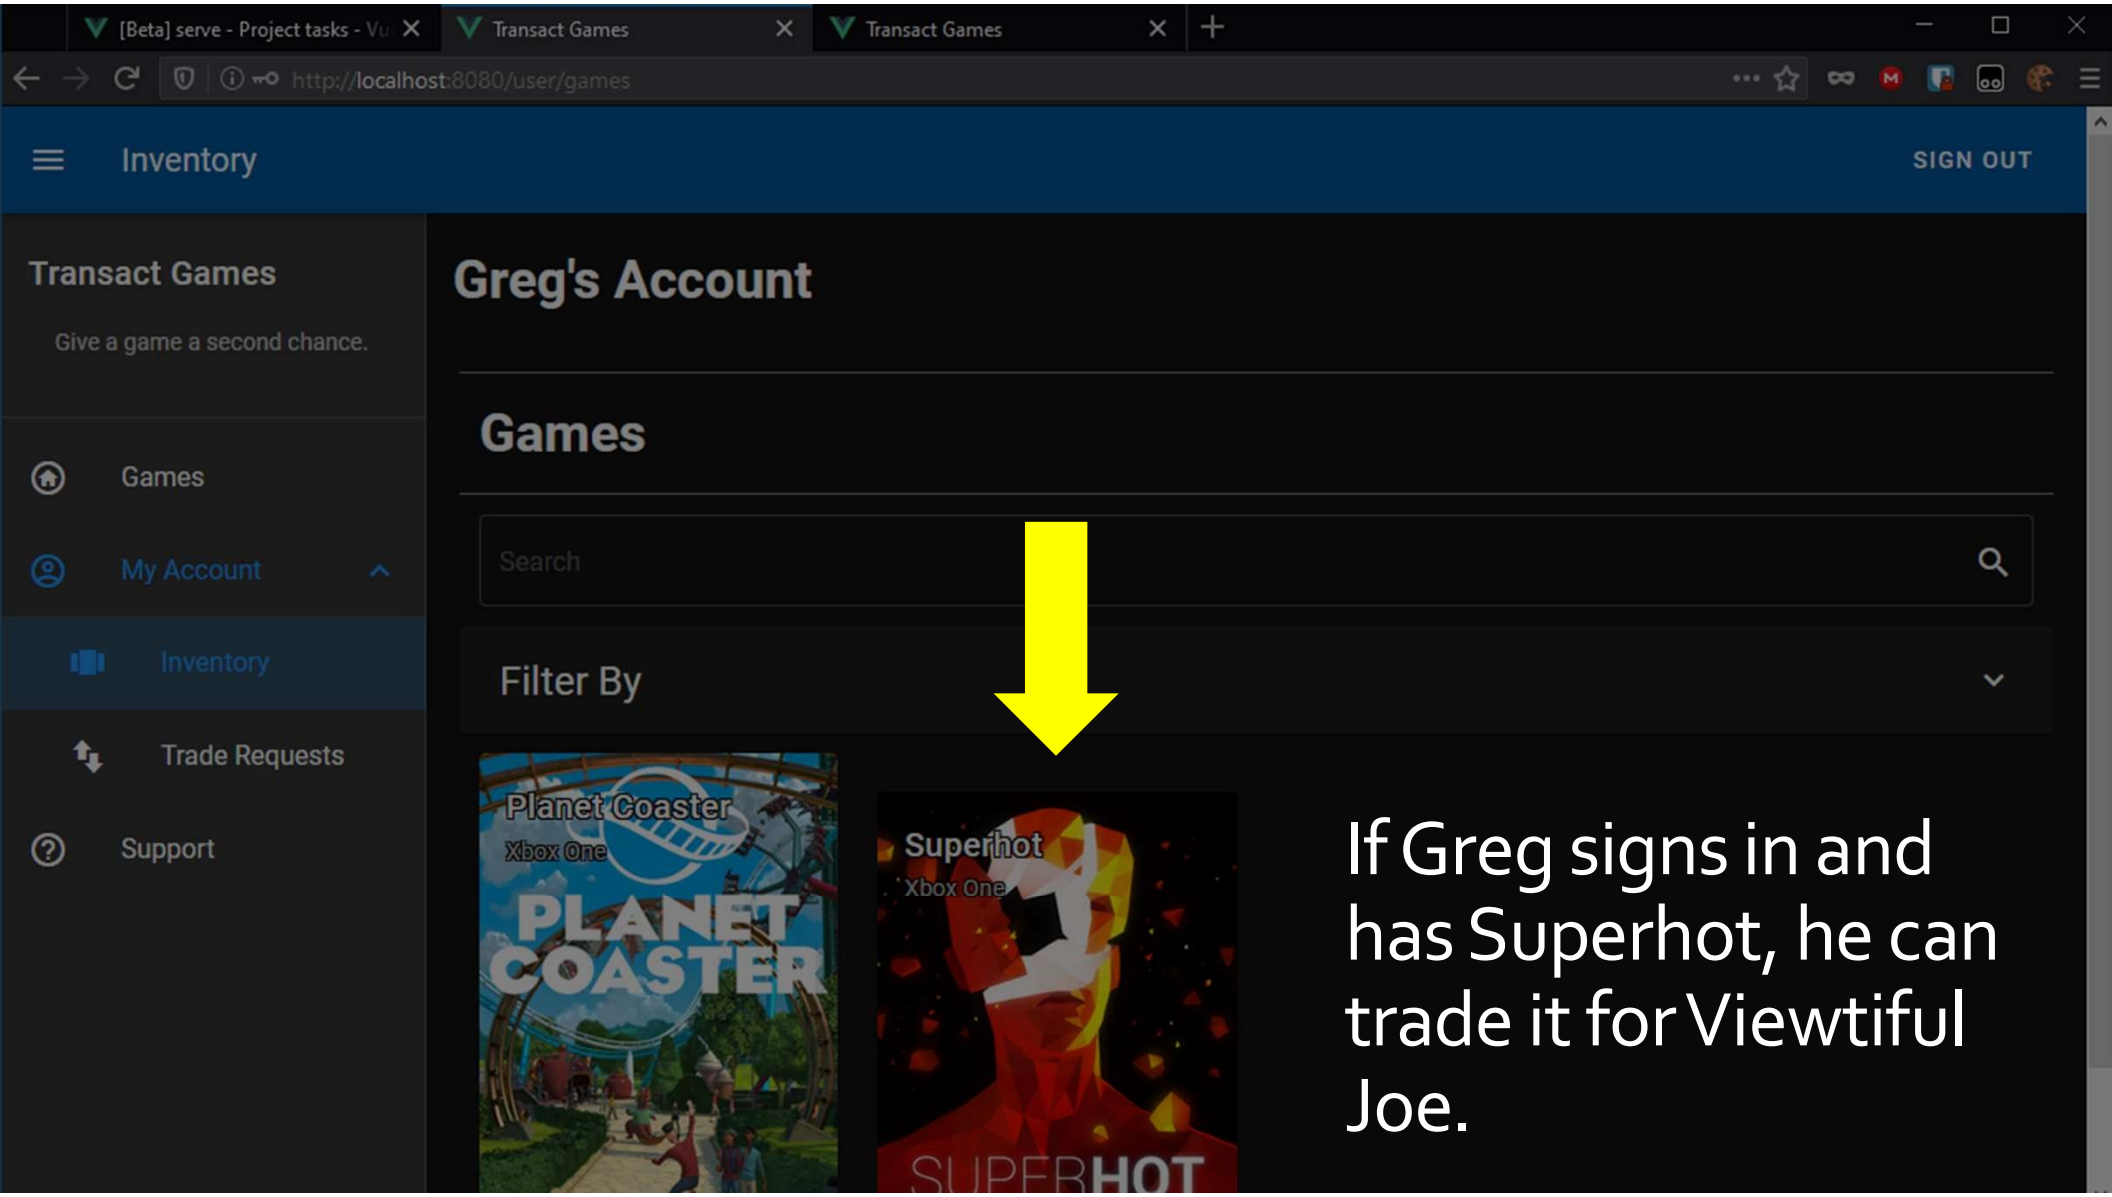
To request a trade, find the game you want, mouse over the "Request Trade" button, and click the game you want to trade.



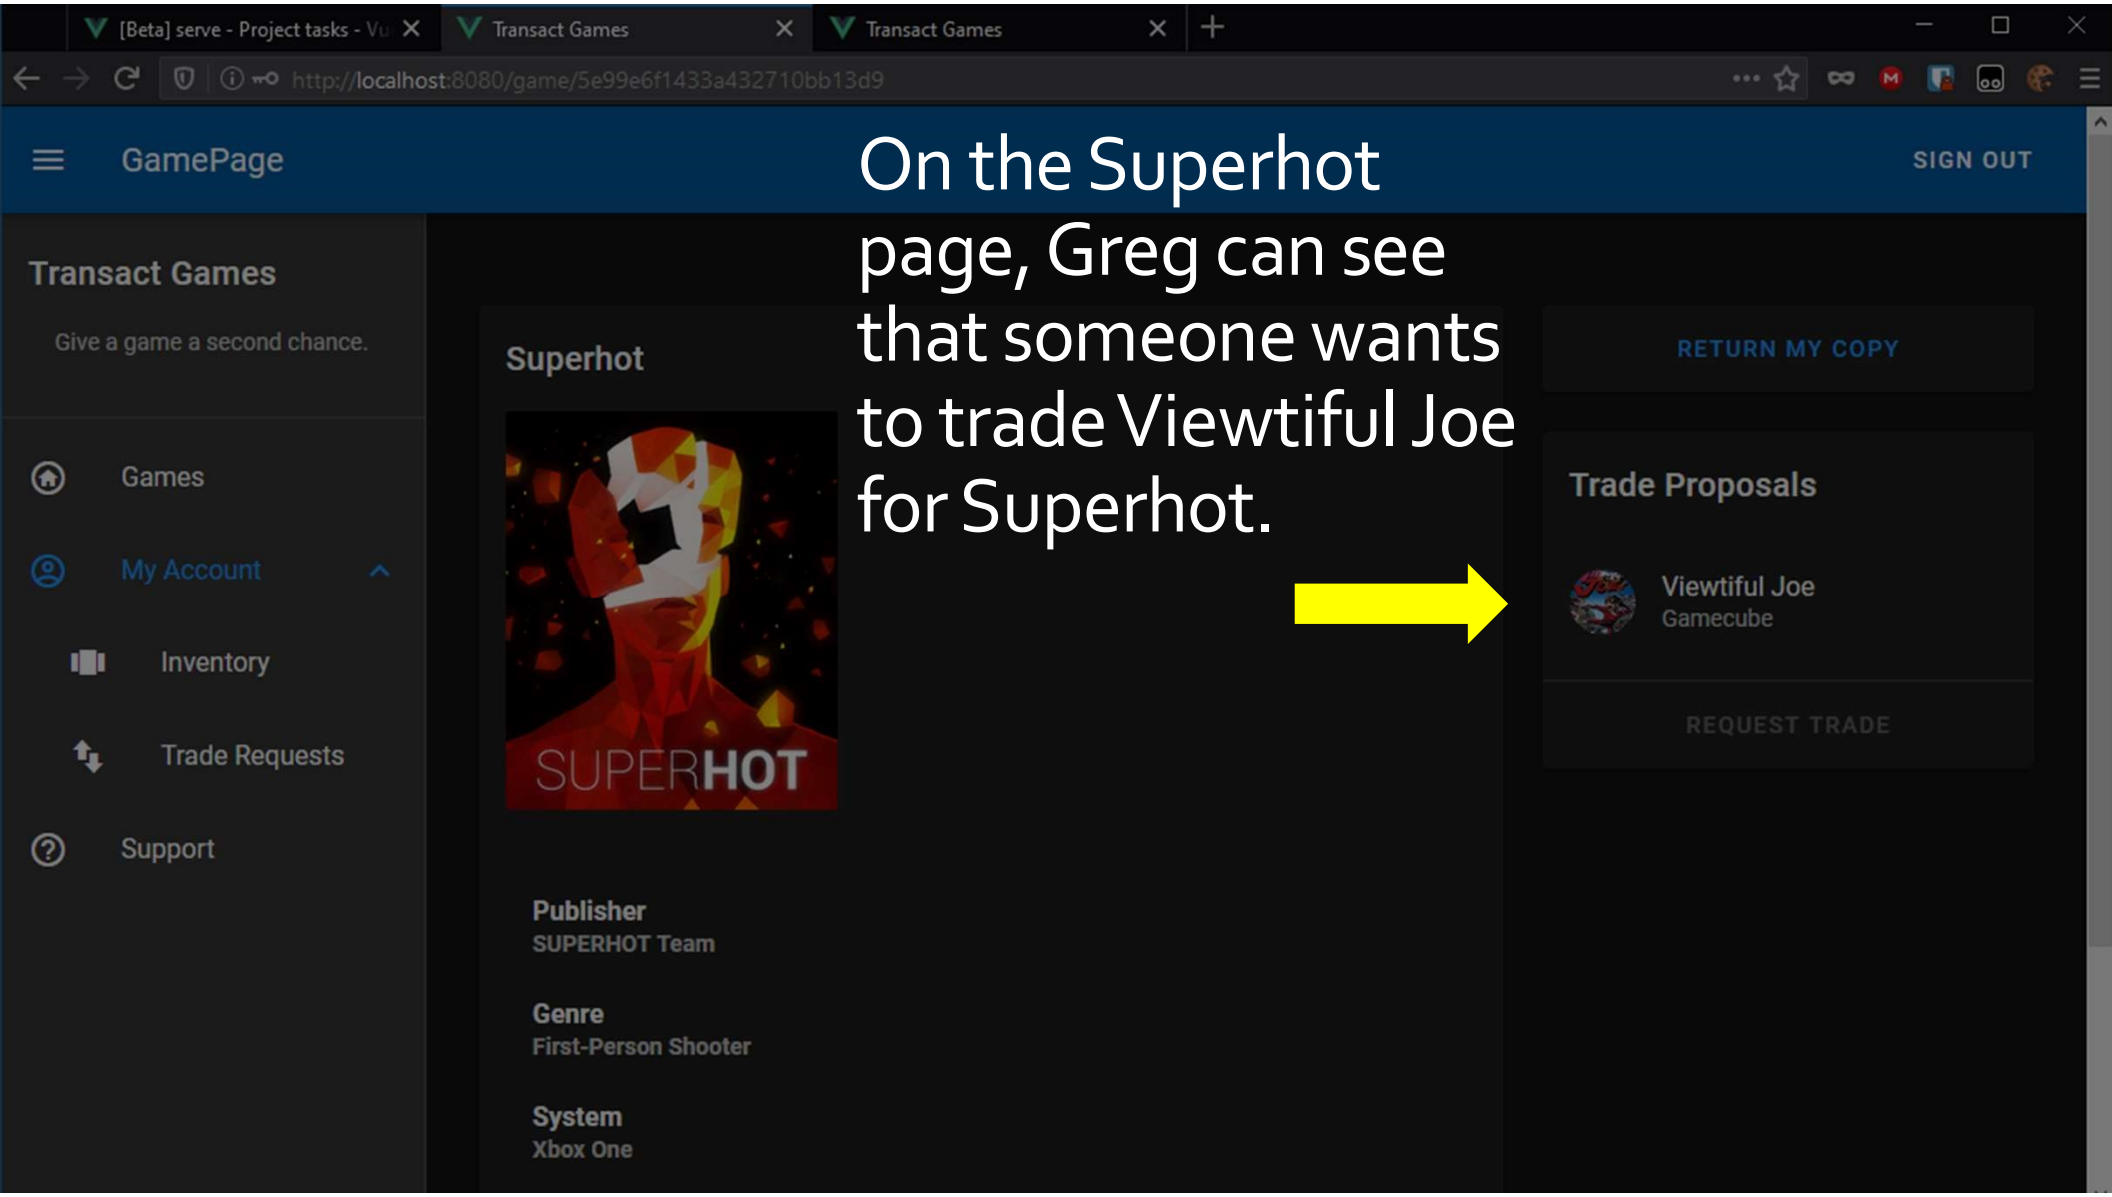
A dialog will ask you if you are sure you want to trade.



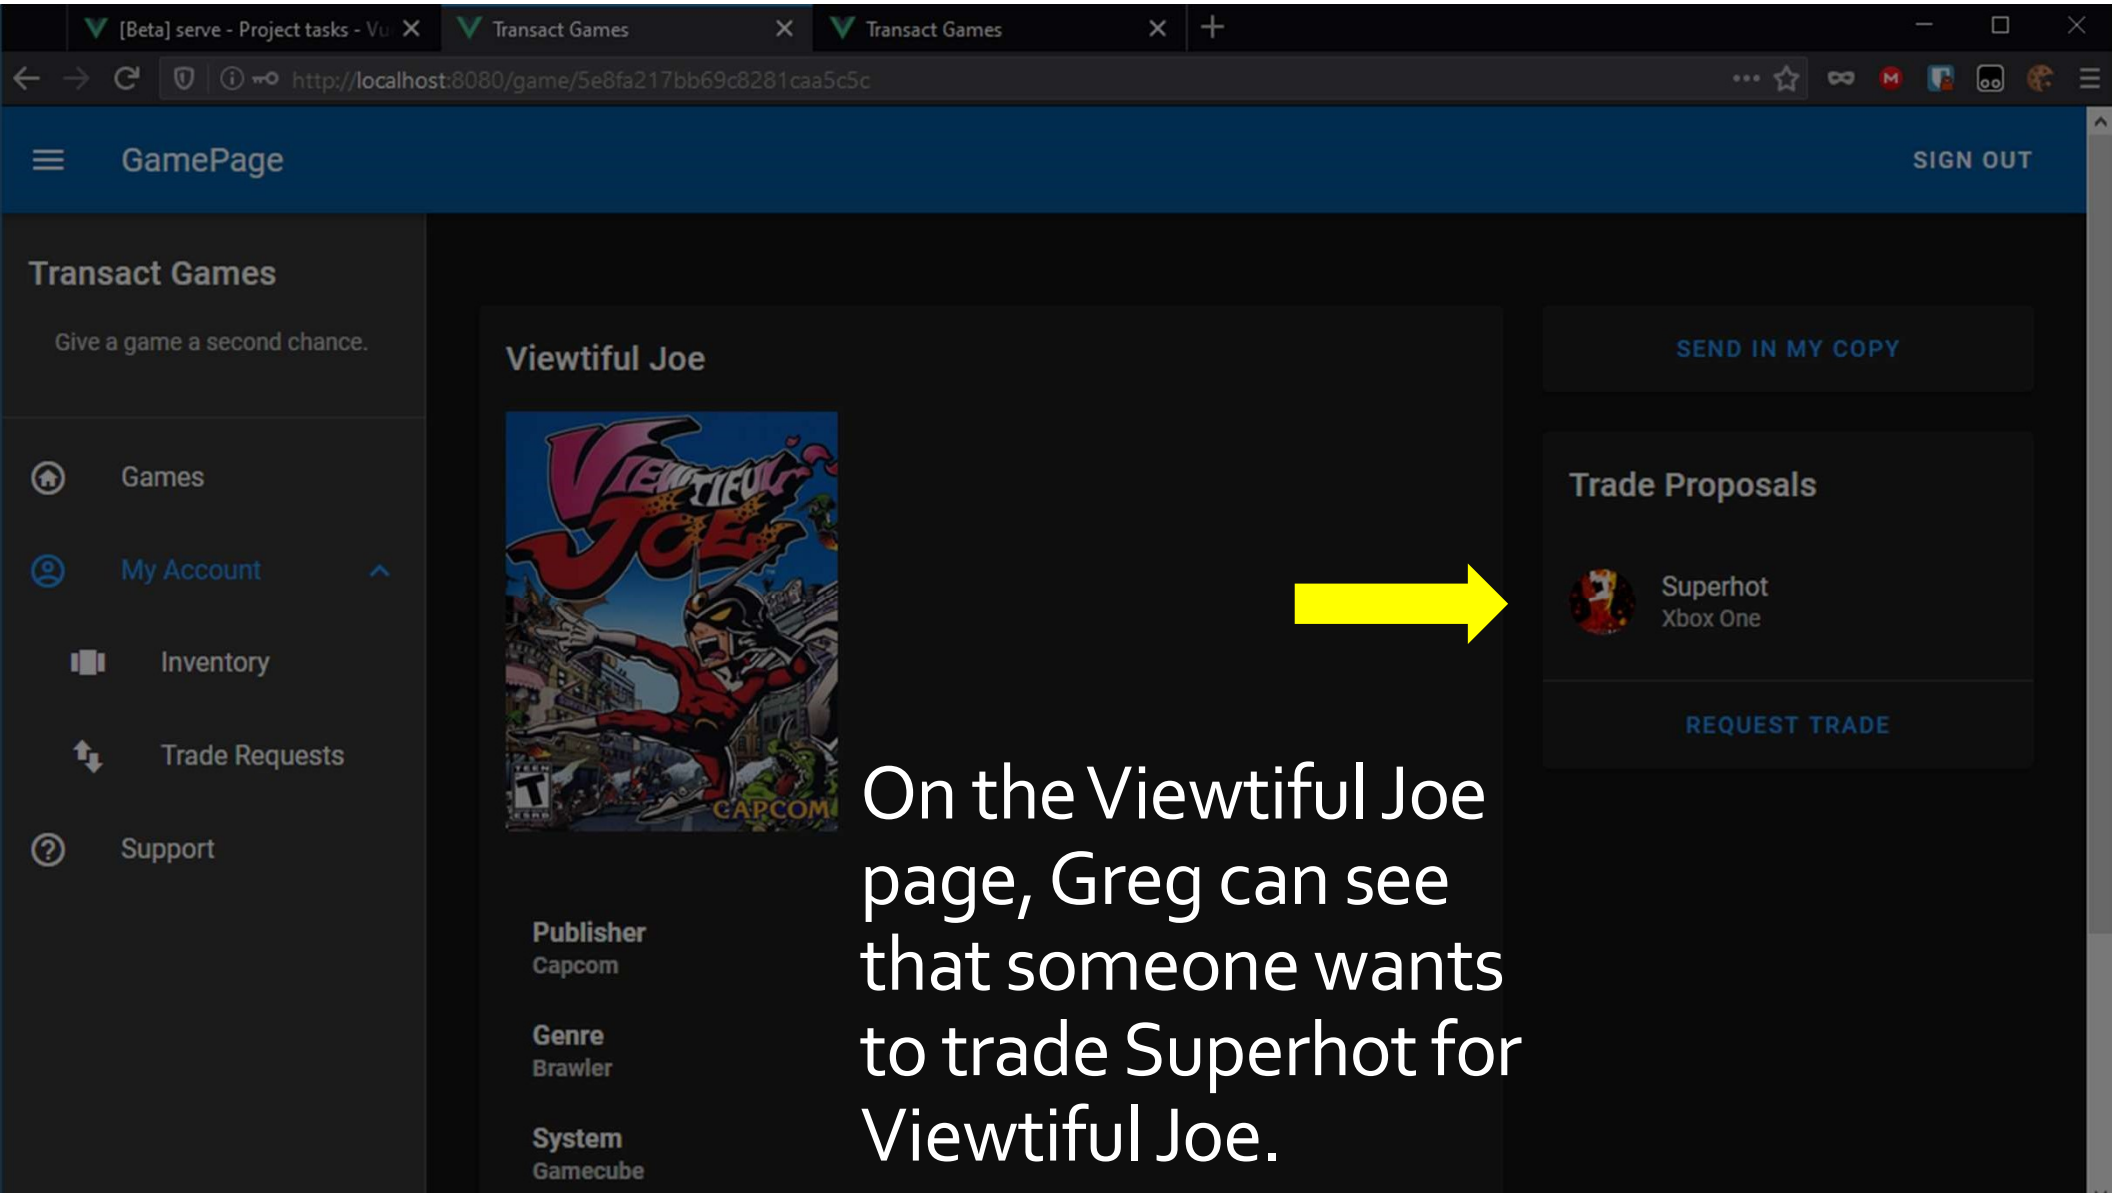
You can manage your active trade requests on the "Trade Requests" page.



If Greg signs in and has Superhot, he can trade it for Viewtiful Joe.



On the Superhot page, Greg can see that someone wants to trade Viewtiful Joe for Superhot.



On the Viewtiful Joe page, Greg can see that someone wants to trade Superhot for Viewtiful Joe.

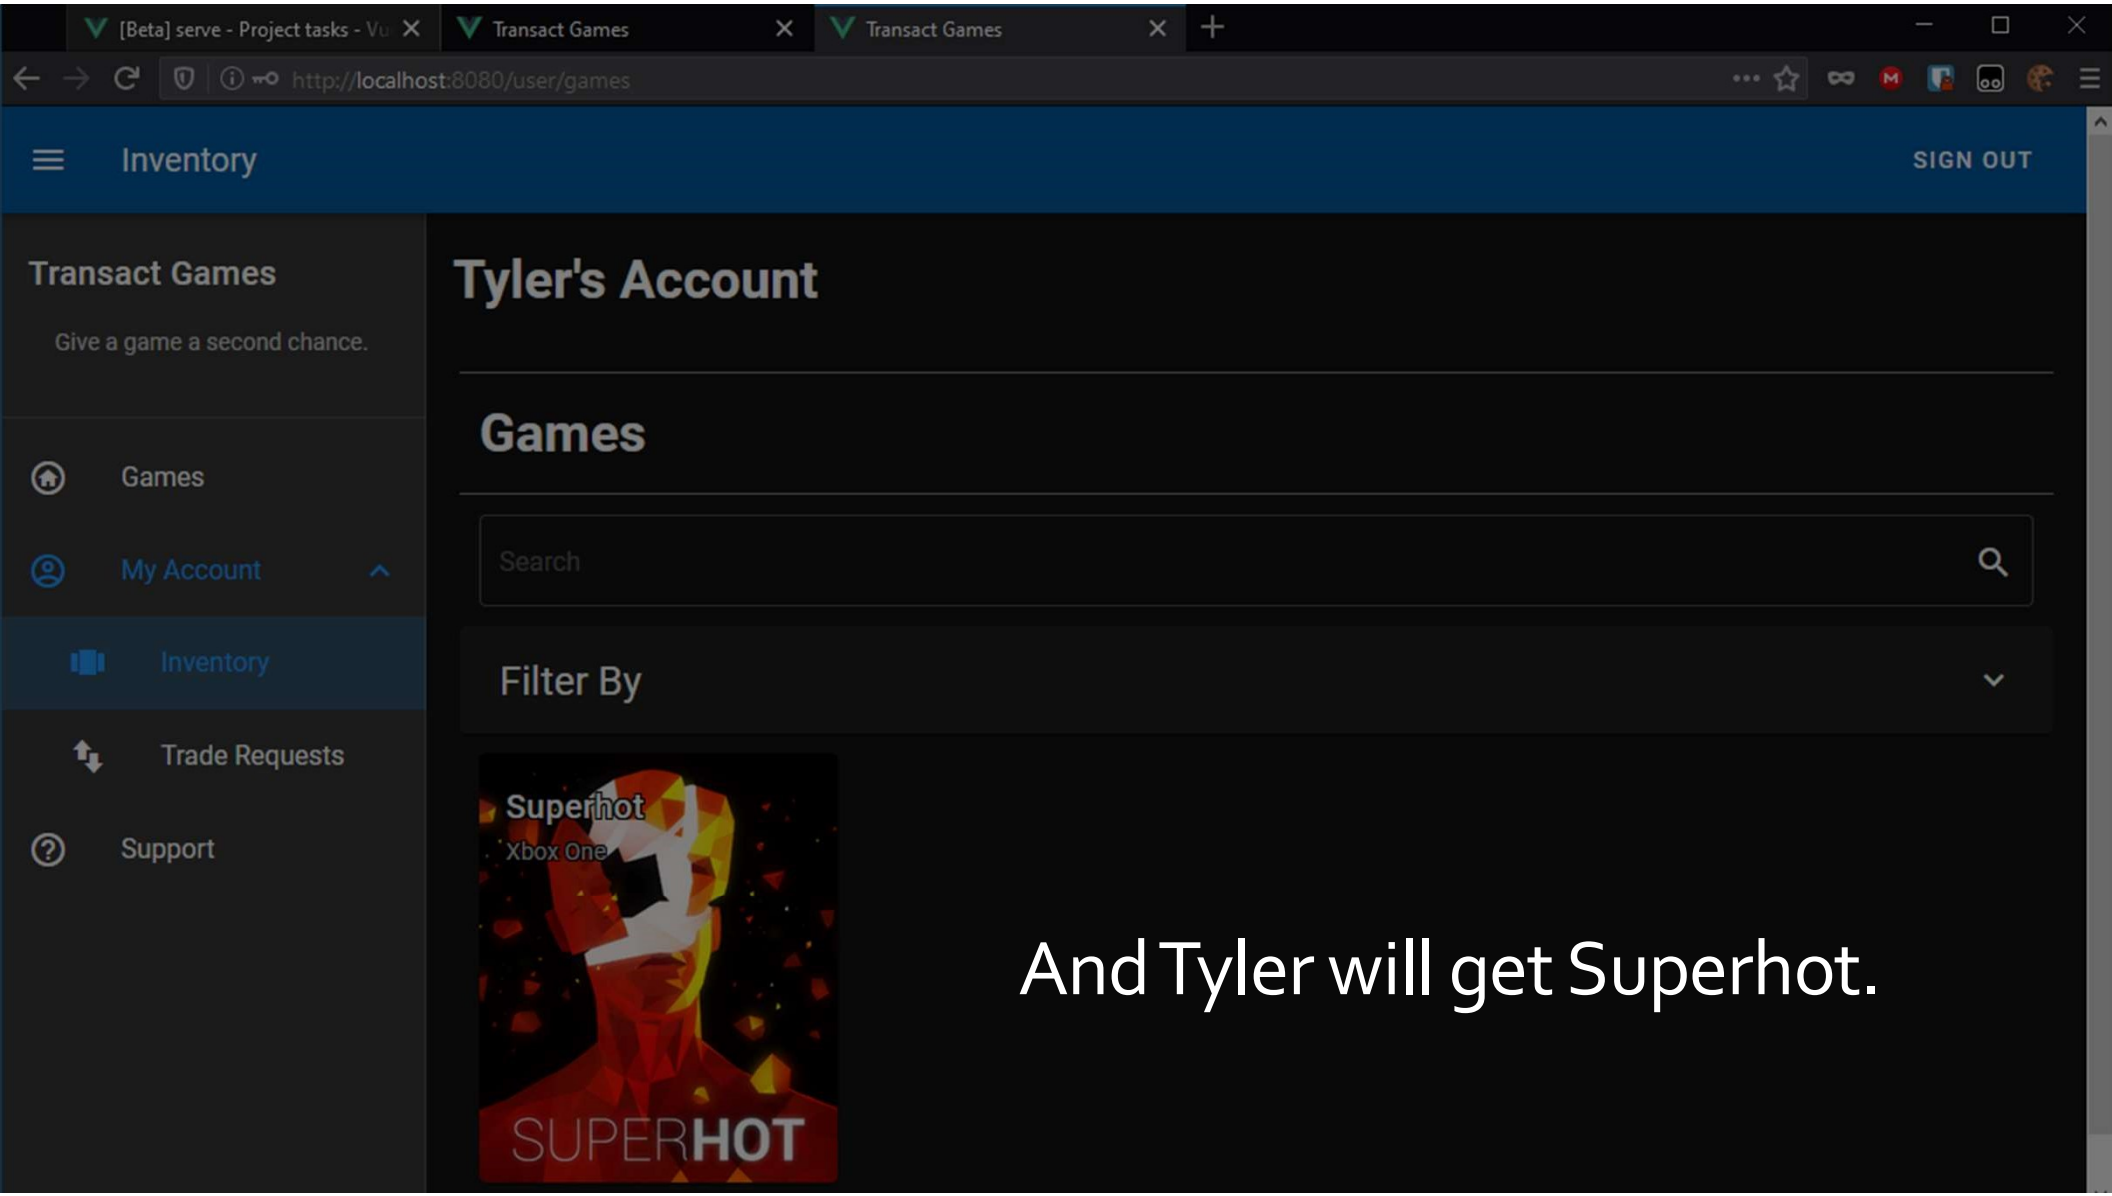
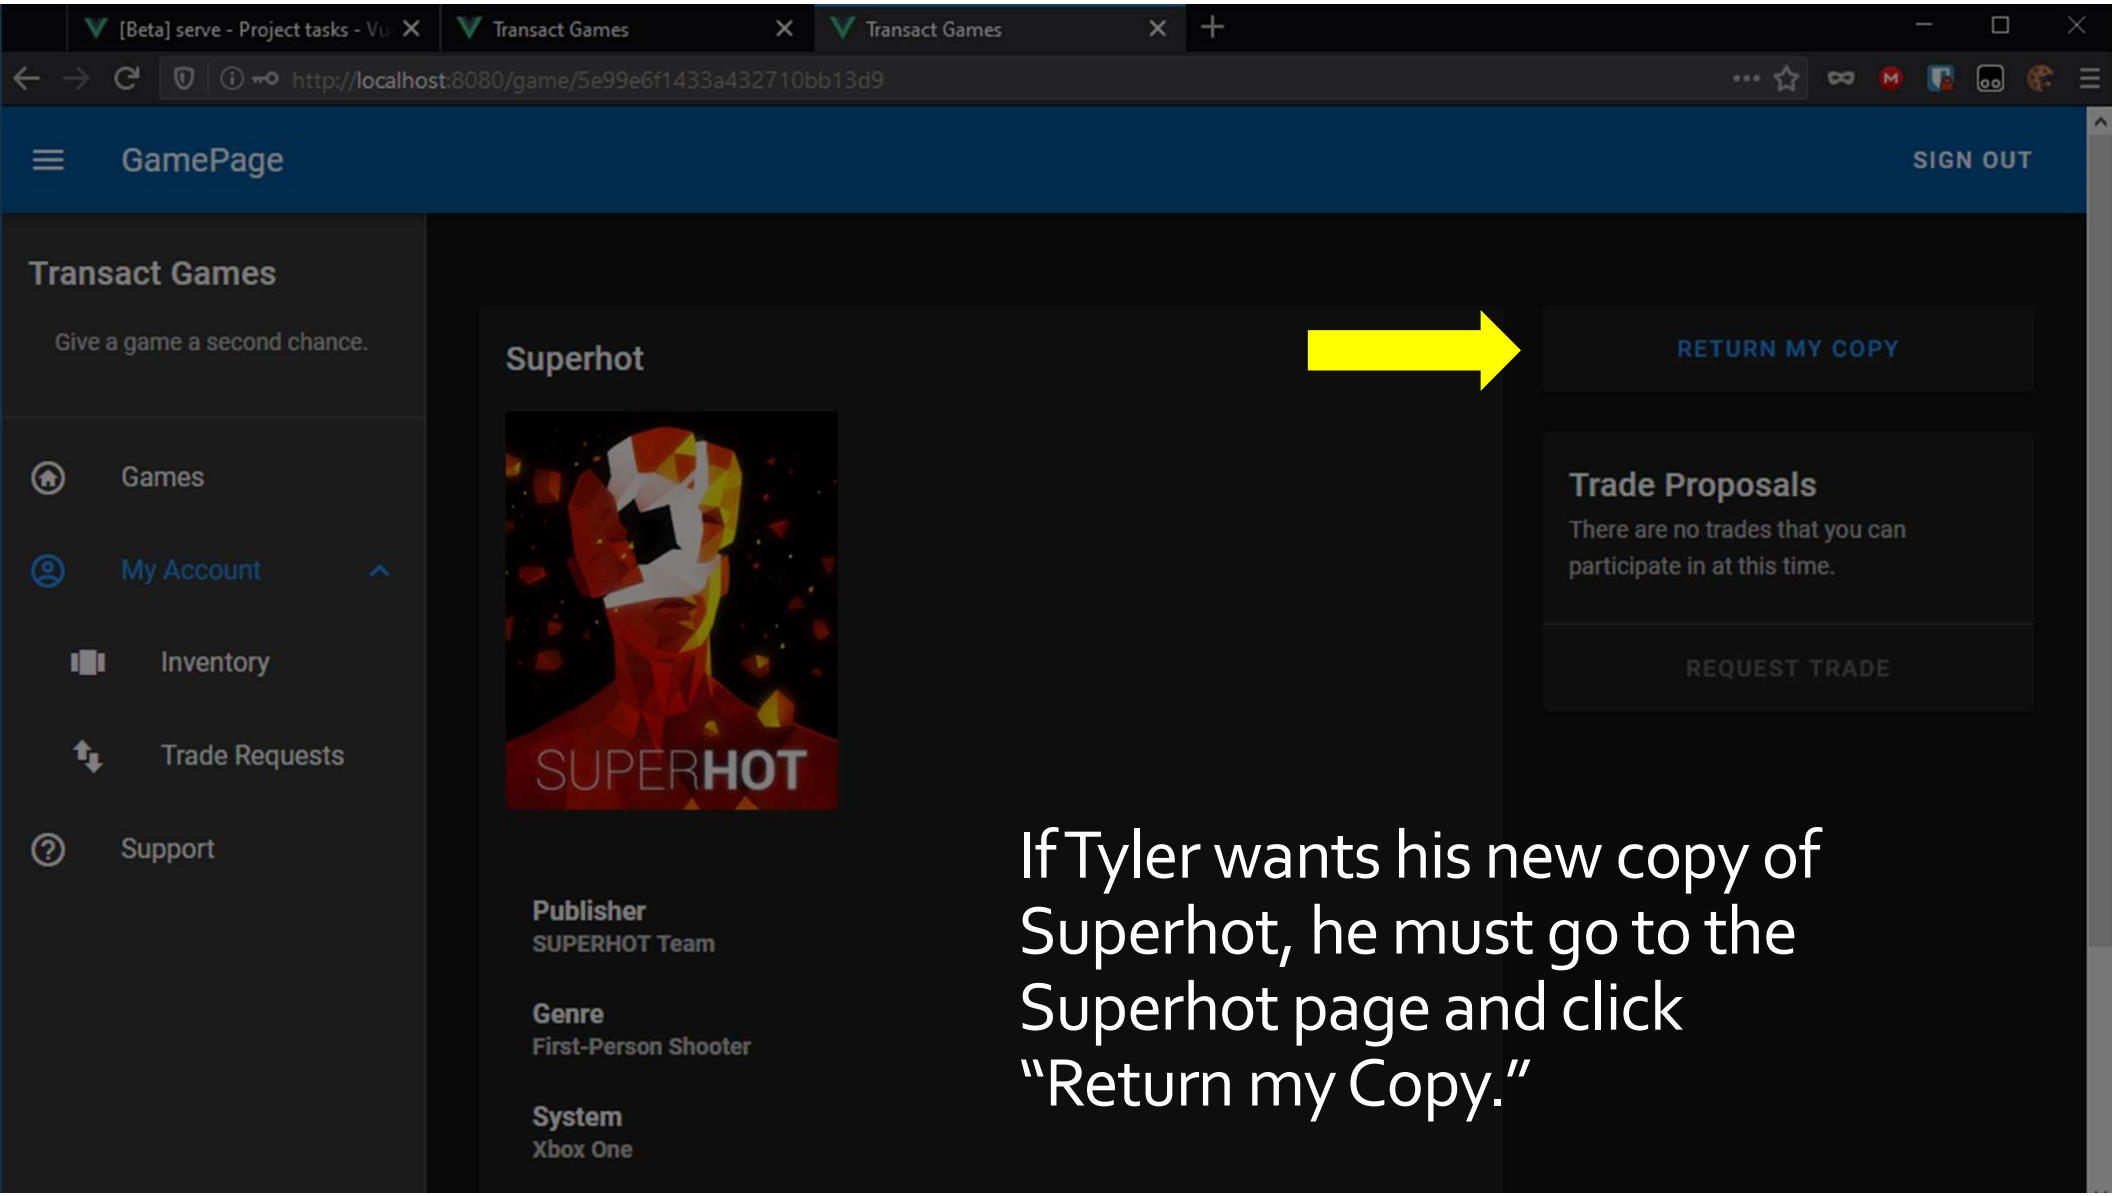
When Greg clicks "Trade Now," he will get Viewtiful Joe.



And Tyler will get Superhot.



If Tyler wants his new copy of Superhot, he must go to the Superhot page and click "Return my Copy."

That Concludes the User Guide

That is how you navigate Transact Games.
